

PRESS RELEASE – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Date: 31 July 2023

PIPELINE PLASTICS JOIN TOP LINE-UP OF PPXXI SPONSORS

Organizers of the PPXXI report that Pipeline Plastics have joined a top line-up of sponsors for the event scheduled at Lake Buena Vista, Florida, over September 25 -27, 2023. A total of 92 papers will be delivered during the three-day conference and exhibition.

“PPXXI is truly an international forum focusing on sustainable strengths throughout the world of plastic pipes.” Sarah Patterson, Organizing Committee Chair, comments further, “We are delighted to welcome Pipeline Plastics on board as Coffee Break Sponsor. Since establishing in 2019, Pipeline Plastics has forged ground in high-performance polyethylene pressure pipe for drinking water, irrigation, mining, gas distribution, industrial, sewer, and oil and gas applications.”

“Pipeline Plastics is significantly positioned to meet the demand growth of HDPE pipe systems,” says Mike Leathers, CEO “By 2024, our advanced volume line capacity will generate almost half a million (US) tons of plastic pipe produced by sustainable means for sustainable purposes. Our passion to produce products that protect the earth, ensure safety and conserve our most valuable resources, is continuous.”

Networking remains an essential feature of the conference. A record number of companies and organizations have signed up for a PPXXI sponsorship and/or an exhibition booth. Some sponsorships and exhibition opportunities are available. Interested parties can view and reserve online via:

Conference organizers also mentioned that as of July 5, 2023, registered participation has already reached 26 countries, ~129 organizations and ~254 representatives. The anticipated attendee composition is 55 percent from the host region (North America in this instance) and 45 percent from the rest of the world. The Registered Company List is posted to the PPXXI home page.

The host hotel for PPXXI is The Walt Disney World Swan and Dolphin, a Marriott property, centrally located within the Walt Disney World Resort. Organizers point out that ~88 percent of rooms have already been reserved for the event and advise early reservation via the hotel link: <https://ppxxi.com/accomodation/>.
